Dear Mr./Ms./Mr. (Last Name):

As an experienced server and systems administrator, I have worked on numerous projects involving matching organizational expectations and server uptime with the tough requirements attending new hardware and application integrations. I have attached my resume in Word to illustrate my expertise and talents. As you'll see, my strong experience positions me uniquely to serve Company named as a server manager.

In particular, the server migration projects I have spearheaded demonstrate my ability to plan the process, tasks, and costs—as well as hardware and application needs—of large-scale enterprise projects. I know that I can bring this expertise to your company in a way that will add value to your organization.

I would be interested in speaking with you to discuss the value that my strengths and experience can bring to Company named. I can be reached in confidence at the above telephone number or email address. I look forward to hearing from you.

With best regards,

Sam Jones
